

junctQín keyboard collective 2009 Performances

Oct 17, 2009 6:00 PM - "Rule Britannia," at YYZ Gallery Toronto, ON

junctQín is joined by pianist Jane Wood in this performance installation of Rule Britannia, a digital opera by multimedia artist Kenneth Doren. The installation runs from September 5 to October 17 at YYZ Gallery. "Rule Britannia: a low opera in grand shite style" is about the past as well as the human potential to act, or simply knowing that we just don't have it in us. So what's left? This 'Low Opera' questions current and historical issues while interpreting social codes and philosophies. This performance installation re-thinks western classical music, performed and produced using multi-media elements and piano duo."

Sep 21, 2009 4:00 PM - Artsweek Peterborough at Artspace
Peterborough, ON

Invention in Three Parts: a performance/installation by composer Douglas C. Wadle, comprised of three toy pianists) interpreting seven scores projected onto three walls. The piece explores the relationship between Dada-ism, musical indeterminacy, and movement. Previously presented in Los Angeles, this performance marks the piece's Canadian debut. Performances at 4pm, 5pm, 7pm and 8pm on September 21 at Artspace.
